GENERAL ITEMS.

The Louisville Courier publishes a list of all the bankrupts in Kentucky.

The list includes about two thousand names.

--Dispatches from Belgrade report that the treaty and servants of Prince Karageorgevich are on trial on a charge of complicity in the plot for the murder of Prince Michael.

--Hon. George H. Pendleton has consented to address a Democratic meeting at Lafayette, Ind., on the 30th inst.

--Jefferson Davis and family will spend the summer in Nova Scotia. A large number of Southerners are already there.

--The members of the Alabama Legislature have consented to legislate for the benefit of the negroes at $8 per day.

--The Scientific American says that the military telegraph system now used is the most perfect in the world.

--Miss Callie Hewitt, an accomplished young lady, was killed by lightning near Huntsville, Ala., recently.

--One-fifth of the inhabitants of that part of Africa visited by the cholera have been carried off. It is said that the longest session of the French Chambers on record. It has lasted eight months.

--A large number of Mormons are now on their way across the plains to their New Jerusalem. A party of them landed from a steamer on the west bank of the Missouri, opposite Council Bluffs, on Monday last, and before night seventeen of the party were stricken.

--General Rosecrans is at the Astor House. He remains in New York a week or ten days, on private business.

--A land slide occurred on Friday near Goepert, killing three men and seriously injuring several others.

--The Insular Asylum, on Ward's Island, costing four hundred thousand dollars, was paid for by Congress under the excuse law.

--The principal activity on Wall street is in Western stocks. Eastern stocks and Government bonds are dull.

--The New Bedford Standard says the whole ship are bringing in full cargoes, and an abundant yield of oil is expected.

--Parties are organizing a company and raising money to develop the quartz gold mine recently discovered near West Point. A rich vein has been traced there for a thousand feet.

--George M. Day, an extensive miller of Peru, Illinois, committed suicide on Thursday evening, by shooting himself through the heart.

--The Chase House, the pride and boast of Pittsburgh in its palmy days, is

THE NEW YORK HERALD AS A PROPHET.

Its Predictions and What They were Worth--Invariably

Wrong for Twenty-one Years.

THE HERALD PREDICTS THE DEFEAT OF

PRESIDENT POLK.

Of the nomination of Mr. Polk we hardly know how to speak seriously.

A more ridiculous, contemptible and fat-tally candidate was never put forth by any party.

The singular result of all these laughable delusions of the Democratic party in Baltimore will be the election of Henry Clay by a larger majority than ever was secured by Jackson or Harrison. New York Herald, May 31, 1844.

PRESIDENT TAYLOR.

There is every probability that Gen.

Taylor will be defeated in November, and that General Cass will most likely be the successful candidate, as Mr. Polk was four years ago. New York Herald, Sept. 5, 1848.

PRESIDENT FIDELIX.

From an article entitled "General

Scott--Prospect of his Nomination and Election." "Finally, as General Scott is to be the Whig candidate upon General Taylor's platform, the Democrats might as well prepare to meet him.

They will get no other candidate from the Whigs, and they will find no other, as parties now stand, so hard to beat. In ward, General Scott will be nominated, and without letters, promises, principles or pledges, he may be elected." N. Y.

Herald, April 12.

PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

This day week, on Tuesday, 13th inst., we are to have in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, three preliminary battles against the demoralized Democracy which are destined to culminate in a regular Waterloo defeat. To Mr. Buchanan on the great day in November. There is, in other words, an ominous rolling of popular thunder which indicates in the October elections a heavier Fremont tornado than that which recently swept over the Eastern frontier States of Maine, etc.

N. Y. Herald, Oct. 7, 1866.

PRESIDENT SEYMOUR.

The die is cast. The Democratic Convention has decided that our next President shall be General Grant.

Grant and Colfax, against such a ticket will sweep the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, because the blockheads of the Democratic party will find that we are still living under the regime of poor

Pierce and Buchanan. N. Y. Herald,

July 10, 1868.

--The Hebrews of Nashville have formed an anti Grant club.

--A negro was run over by a locomotive in Nashville on Friday, and his skull smashed to atoms.

--The negroes of Sumner county have driven the white people from the county

--disgraced with their blushing proposals.

--The city tax assessor of Nashville estimates the value of real and personal property within the corporate limits at over $25,000,000.

--The Nashville Banner of Saturday says: We understand that the fifty negroes who took part in a futile march at the end of St. Louis, will have purchased a new powder.

--Bill Lauer, colored, aged about seventy-five years, was arrested in Nashville on Friday and charged with violating the person of a negro girl about thirteen years.

--The Richmond Whig of Friday says:

None of the carpet-baggers or scalawags

FOREIGN.

VIENNA, July 26. Political riots took place in Prague last week. The garrison of the city has been increased and quiet restored.

BERLIN, July 26. The Emperor Alexander of Russia has gone to Glatz.

London, July 26. The ship Germania, Capt. Cadenby, which left Norway on the 7th of May last on an expedition to the north pole, was spoken in latitude 72, all well on board.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, July 26. Marks, Moore and Jerrald, the Adams Express robbers, arrested at Madison, Cole county, Illinois, arrived at Seymour, Indiana, at half-past ten o'clock last night, and were taken to the jail at that place.

The sheriff of Jackson county, where the robbers were taken, was sworn in yesterday. When the robbers were taken they were all taken to the same place where the robbers were taken. Previous to the hanging, the prisoners were questioned as to the numerous robberies which have occurred in Jackson county, but with the exception of an acknowledgment of small depredations, nothing was gained from them.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 26. Sherman presented the bill for the relief of Warner, Senator elect from Alabama, for the term ending March, 1871. Mr.

Sherman made a report from the Committee of Conference on the Funding bill to the proposed amendment, saying that it applies to the whole of outstanding five-twenty, and he begged to be receded from the provision legalizing the gold contracts. It port concerned in Mr. Henderson took the floor for a personal explanation, and denounced Secretary Butler's report on behalf of the impeachment managers in regard to the action of Senators on the impeachment trial. He said he had learned that the other six managers, connected had nothing to do with it. He denounced the investigation as a petty work of malice and calumny, and said not only to the author of the report but disgraceful to the character of an American Congress. He spoke at length of the length, rejoicing and criticizing the report, showing its unfairness, and charging that Mr. Butler suppressed the most portions of the testimony and distorted, and perverted facts for malicious purposes.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 26. Mr. and Mrs.

Burlingame, with Cai Kang and Gue

Chun, associated missionaries from China, arrived here last night, and were received by a large company at the Metropolitan Hotel. The reception was the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the treaty between the United States and China, and as an expression of grateful feeling of the Chinese Empire, manifested through the representatives of the United States and friendly spirit with which they have been received in Washington. The society was composed of officers of the army and navy, judges of the courts, members of Congress of both houses and distinguished gentlemen.

The committee of the Union, together with several hundred others, including many ladies. The entertainment was more than ordinarily brilliant. Refreshments were provided in the dining-room of the hotel. The American and Chinese

CHINA.

It is reported that the crew of the American vessel Gen. Sherman, which was wrecked in Chinese waters, have been released by the natives and have landed.

--Intelligence has been received in London, July 26, that the Chinese rebels have taken the city of Hsiao Tung, and marched off in a southeasterly direction.

--Important news has also been received via Shanghai. The Mahado has proclaimed a new edict against native

Christians, and has ordered them to</
